Dear Mr. Brownson:

Thank you for your recent letter concerning the changes to be made in the forthcoming edition of the Congressional Staff Directory.

I am enclosing the form with the changes and, as you can see, we have a new Legislative Counsel. We are also including the Deputy Legislative Counsel. We don't anticipate any changes for some time.

Sincerely

Executive Assistant

Office of the Legislative Counsel
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Miller:

We will appreciate your help once again.

This year we are publishing, early in October, our third 1978 update of the Congressional Staff Directory data base. We are including the "Key Personnel of the Executive Branch" section as an important part of this update. Enclosed for your review is a copy of the listing for your department as you submitted it last spring and as it was printed in the 1978 Congressional Staff Directory.

Will you please have one of your aides look it over and make any appropriate changes? Feel free to add any offices or personnel who are most frequently contacted by the Hill, other governmental agencies or departments, or the public. We are anxious to have the listing for your department exactly as you wish it.

Please return your updated listing immediately. If you have additional changes after returning the form, call Bobbie, Betty or Ann at 836-7500 so we can keep the information current.

As a result of the cooperation of our friends in the Government and on the Hill, our directory has grown until it is now recognized as an authority and used widely by government, the legal profession, industry, radio, TV, the press and colleges. More than 8,000 libraries now make this directory available to readers as a reference.

Thank you for your help and cooperation.

Sincerely,

Charles B. Brownson
